

Stay @ Home and Play Ideas

During this extended time of staying at home it can be tricky to keep everyone busy, happy and healthy. Be kind to yourself and don't expect your day to look like how it would for your child at Day Care, Kindy or school.

Giving your child opportunities to play is one of the best ways to help them grow into imaginative, curious and happy adults ready with the skills they need today. Share the bliss of discovery as you connect with each other and the world around you.

The ideas being shared are for you to try out with your little ones. Each idea will give suggestions for the approximate age range it is aimed at but you can change them to how you think they'll work best for you and your family.

Lots of the ideas can be done over and over again as your children will get something different out of the experience each time. Don't worry, even if you get sick of doing it, they probably won't (think about how many times they'll watch their favourite movie or listen to you share their favourite book)!
