

Bundaberg Botanic Gardens Quiz

For the tech lover in your house!

Materials

- Access to the internet
- Pen
- Paper

Instructions

- Go to discoverbundaberg.com.au
- Click on Bundaberg Botanic Gardens
- All of the answers to the questions are found in this site
- Submit your answers by email to parksadministration@bundaberg.qld.gov.au with your name and address. The first 10 correct entries will win a garden pack! Just let us know if the prize will be for a child or adult. Good luck!

Questions

1. True or False
The Bundaberg Botanic Gardens have a:
Rare Fruit Tree Orchard: True / False
Prehistoric Garden: True / False
2. How many play structures does the Bundaberg Botanic Gardens Nature Playground have?
3. The Bundaberg Botanic Gardens is home to the tallest heliconia in the world. What is the common name of this species?
4. What is the name of the plant with pink trumpet flowers?
5. What is the common name of the tree that is highly valued for its perfume?
6. In Autumn where could you let your nose lead you to?
7. Find the video called "Please Don't Feed Ducks Bread". Cody Johnson, Curator for the Bundaberg Botanic Gardens lists 4 alternative foods that can be fed to ducks instead of bread. List all 4 of these.
8. The Bundaberg Botanic Gardens plays an important role in conserving plant species. What is the common name of an endangered nut that is being grown in the Gardens?
9. There are 3 soil types in the Gardens including loam and alluvium. What is the third soil type?
10. What is the name of the lagoon found at the Gardens?

